EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Content Specialist and Teacher

Chemistry and Computer Science

KIUNA INSTITUTION, DESIGNED BY AND FOR FIRST NATIONS, BUT OPEN TO ALL!

At Kiuna, our objective is to democratize access to post-secondary education for First Nations members. Our college has earned a reputation for its culturally adapted services and unique environment where programs, student services, human resources, teaching methods and materials are based on Indigenous cultures and traditions.

Session: Winter / Fall 2024

Job Status: Content specialist contract of 35 hours/course with the possibility of a teaching charge

Workplace: Kiuna, 1205, route Marie-Victorin, Odanak (Québec) J0G 1H0

Employment takes place during regular office hours from Monday to Friday. It is possible to combine several teaching loads. Teaching loads are face-to-face only to encourage the success of our students.

Salary for the content specialist contract: $40/hour

Annual Salary for teaching position: Salary varies according to education, recognized experience and employment status as defined in the Teachers' Working Conditions Manual of Kiuna.

Job description:

Kiuna is looking for candidates to fill the following positions:

Science – First Nations and Inuit Profile program, which combines the general training offered at Kiuna with specific training in science fields according to the specifications of the Department of Higher Education, is under development. With this in mind, Kiuna is looking for teachers to develop the following course content:

General Chemistry 202-SN1-RE, Chemistry of Solutions 202-SN2-RE and Organic Chemistry 202-SNU-RE
Programming in science 420-SN1-RE.

The content specialists are required to take part in start-up and consultation meetings. They will advise the teaching team on the purchase of laboratory equipment and reference books. They will work with other science teachers to establish a program approach oriented towards the enhancement of First Nations and Inuit knowledge. If they so wish, candidates may subsequently teach in their discipline, following Kiuna's selection process.

Requirements:

- Hold a bachelor's degree in the discipline or an appropriate discipline.
- Fluency in spoken and written French and English is an asset.
- Good knowledge of the specific characteristics of education in First Nations communities.

Conditions:

It's possible to combine several mandates. Teaching loads are exclusively on-site based to help our students succeed.

Application deadline: February 13, 2024, 4:00 p.m.

To provide community needs-based services, Kiuna promotes hiring qualified staff representing the following targeted populations in order of priority: 1) First Nations Education Council (FNEC) employees, 2) First Nations members from FNEC-member communities, 3) other First Nations members, 4) Indigenous peoples, 5) other applicants.

To apply, please e-mail your application to emplois@kiuna-college.com

We thank all applicants for their interest, but only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
